Journal of Film History

This book contains 12 essays which examine the international diffusion of Italian economic thought in 8 countries: namely, England, France, Germany, and Austria, Portugal, Spain, Sweden, and the United States. Using different approaches, the contributors to this book discuss the international reputation of Italian economists between 1750 and 1950. This reconstruction of the flow of ideas from economists to economists provides original insights on the intellectual network, including institutions, learned societies, specialised journals, and political authorities in which Italian economic thought was transmitted and circulated. It also serves to measure and explain the specific degree of influence which Italian economists managed to exert within different international contexts and among different groups of scholars. Galiani, Verri, Beccaria, Pantaleoni, Pareto, the Italian School of Public Finance, and the Italian economists in the interwar years are some of the authors whose reputation, knowledge, and influence has been thoroughly investigated in these essays.
